Day 1

Arrive at Narita Airport

- Umihotaru- It literally meaning “sea firefly,” is an artificial island that is accessible from the Tokyo Wan Aqua-Line tunnel.
- Kamakura Buddha-The Great Buddha of Kamakura is a bronze statue of Amida Buddha, which stands on the grounds of Kotokuin Temple. With a height of 13.35 meters, it is the second tallest bronze Buddha statue in Japan.
- Hokoku Temple-It is also called “Take-dera (bamboo temple)” as it is famous for the beautiful bamboo grove behind the main hall. About 2000 thick and fine moso bamboos are growing densely and vigorously towards the sky.

- Kamakura-It is a seaside Japanese city just south of Tokyo. The political center of medieval Japan, modern-day Kamakura is a prominent resort town with dozens of Buddhist Zen temples and Shinto shrines.

Day 2

- Hakone Park-It is part of the Fuji-Hakone-Izu National Park, less than 100 kilometers from Tokyo. Famous for hot springs, natural beauty and the view of nearby Mt. Fuji.

- Gotemba Premium Outlet-The outlet is Japan's most popular outlet mall, located in Gotemba City at the base of Mount Fuji, not far from Hakone. The mall features over 200 stores along with a number of restaurants, a food court and a 50 meter high ferris wheel.
- Oshino Hakkai- It is a touristy set of eight ponds in Oshino, a small village in the Fuji Five Lake region.

- Asakusa- Located in Taito-ku along the west bank of the Sumida River, the Asakusa district once thrived as a temple town for the nearby Senso-ji Temple, but now it is a downtown area that rivals Ginza, Shinjuku, Ikebukuro and Shibuya.

Day 3

- Shinjuku Gyoen- It is one of Tokyo's largest and most popular parks. Located just a short walk from Shinjuku Station, the paid park's spacious lawns, meandering walking paths and tranquil scenery provide a relaxing escape from the busy urban center around it. In spring Shinjuku Gyoen becomes one of the best places in the city to see cherry blossoms.

- Odaiba Seaside Park- A popular shopping and entertainment district on a man-made Island in Tokyo Bay. It originated as a set of small man-made fort islands, which were built towards the end of the Edo Period (1603-1868) to protect Tokyo against possible attacks from the sea.

Day 4

- Aeon Mall Makuhari- The 360 specialty shops includes the Grand Mall featuring shops for grownups and the Pet Mall's specialty pet shops, providing a variety of choices.
