Day 1

Arrive at Narita Airport

- Ushiku Buddha- The great statue of Buddha in Ushiku, having the height of 120m, is the tallest Buddha statue in the world and is listed in the Guinness World Records. Just the face alone is 20m long.
- Ashikaga Flower Park-A park of about 9 hectares that showcases the beauty of mainly wisteria (fuji) as well as many other flowers. It is the most famous attraction in the city of Ashikaga in Tochigi prefecture.
- Nikko Toshogu Shrine-A Shinto shrine established in 1617 to enshrine Tokugawa Ieyasu, the first shogun of the Tokugawa shogunate.

Day 2

- Ouchijuku-It is a former post town along the Aizu-Nishi Kaido trade route, which connected Aizu with Nikko during the Edo Period.
- Tsuruga Castle-The castle was built in 1384 and changed hands many times between the different rulers of the Aizu region. It was destroyed after the Boshin War of 1868.

- Goshikinuma(Five Colored Lakes)- Several dozen groups of these lakes were brought together located within Bandai Asahi National Park.

Day 3

- Sano Premium Outlet- The outlet is a popular among shopper, especially for those looking for high quality goods at low prices. A 25-65% discount sale runs every day throughout the year. It is the home to 180 shops where you can find both international and domestic famous brands.
- Asakusa- Located in Taito-ku along the west bank of the Sumida River, the Asakusa district once thrived as a temple town for the nearby Senso-ji Temple, but now it is a downtown area that rivals Ginza, Shinjuku, Ikebukuro and Shibuya.
- Shinjuku- Shinjuku is one of the 23 city wards of Tokyo, but the name commonly refers to just the large entertainment, business and shopping area around Shinjuku Station.

Day 4

- Imperial Palace- The current Imperial Palace is located on the former site of Edo Castle, a large park area surrounded by moats and massive stone walls in the center of Tokyo, a short walk from Tokyo Station. It is the residence of Japan's Imperial Family.
- Odaiba Seaside Park- A popular shopping and entertainment district on a man-made Island in Tokyo Bay. It originated as a set of small man-made fort islands, which were built towards the end of the Edo Period (1603-1868) to protect Tokyo against possible attacks from the sea.

- Aeon Mall Narita- Aeon Narita is a shopping mall popular with foreign travelers due to its proximity to Narita Airport. The mall is a typical modern Japanese shopping mall with over 150 stores that offer a wide range of goods from fashion to fresh foods and home improvement.
