(Kansai Airport-Osaka-Kobe-Kyoto-Nagoya-Fuji-Tokyo-Narita Airport)

Day 1

Arrive at Narita Airport

- Osaka Castle- The construction of Osaka Castle started in 1583 on the former site of the Ishiyama Honganji Temple, which had been destroyed by Oda Nobunaga thirteen years earlier. Toyotomi Hideyoshi intended the castle to become the center of a new, unified Japan under Toyotomi rule.

- Akashi Kaikyo Bridge-The Akashi Kaikyō Bridge is a suspension bridge, which links the city of Kobe on the Japanese mainland of Honshu to Iwaya on Awaji Island. It crosses the busy Akashi Strait as part of the Honshu-Shikoku Highway.
- Kobe Harbourland -It is a shopping and entertainment district between JR Kobe Station and the waterfront of Kobe's port area. The district offers a large selection of shops, restaurants, cafes and other amusements, which, together with the romantic evening atmosphere, have made it a popular spot for couples and tourists alike.

- Kiyomizu Temple-Kiyomizudera is one of the most celebrated temples of Japan. It was founded in 780 on the site of the Otowa Waterfall in the wooded hills east of Kyoto, and derives its name from the fall's pure waters.

Day 2

- Fushimi Inari Shrine- It is an important Shinto shrine in southern Kyoto. It is famous for its thousands of vermilion torii gates, which straddle a network of trails behind its main buildings. The trails lead into the wooded forest of the sacred Mount Inari, which stands at 233 meters and belongs to the shrine grounds.
- Kinkaku-Ji -Kinkakuji is a Zen temple in northern Kyoto whose top two floors are completely covered in gold leaf.

- Nishijin- It is Kyoto's famed weaving district, in the northwest part of central Kyoto, is one of the most traditional areas – it's a great place to see machiya (old Kyoto townhouses).

- SCMAGLEV & Railway Park- It is the railway museum of Central Japan Railways. The museum seeks to educate visitors on the advances in high speed rail in Japan and displays a number of actual trains including historic steam locomotives, world record setting experimental shinkansen and the latest magnetic levitating trains.

Day 3

- Gotemba Premium Outlet-The outlet is Japan's most popular outlet mall, located in Gotemba City at the base of Mount Fuji, not far from Hakone. The mall features over 200 stores along with a number of restaurants, a food court and a 50 meter high Ferris wheel.
- Oshino Hakkai- It is a touristy set of eight ponds in Oshino, a small village in the Fuji Five Lake region.

Day 4

- Kawaguchi Lake- It is located in the border Fujikawaguchiko and Minobu, southern Yamanashi Prefecture near Mount Fuji, Japan. It is the second largest of the Fuji Five Lakes in terms of surface area, and is located at the lowest elevation

- Asakusa- Located in Taito-ku along the west bank of the Sumida River, the Asakusa district once thrived as a temple town for the nearby Senso-ji Temple, but now it is a downtown area that rivals Ginza, Shinjuku, Ikebukuro and Shibuya.

- Akihabara- Akihabara (秋葉原), also called Akiba after a former local shrine, is a district in central Tokyo that is famous for its many electronics shops. In more recent years, Akihabara has gained recognition as the center of Japan's otaku (diehard fan) culture, and many shops and establishments devoted to anime and manga are now dispersed among the electronic stores in the district.
